

ROGUE WAVES & CROSSWINDS: TRADE MARKS IN MOTION

JUDIT LANTOS, ECTA Council Member and Chair of the ECTA WIPO Link Committee, Attorney at Law, Partner, Sár & Partners Attorneys at Law – Danubia Patent and Law Office, HU

Judit Lantos graduated summa cum laude from Eötvös Loránd University's Faculty of Law in Budapest in 1995. After graduation she spent an internship at the German patent and trademark firm Viering, Jentschura & Partner in Munich. She subsequently joined the law firm Bogsch & Partners, where she specialized in company law, commercial law and trademark law. In 1998, together with Csaba Sár, she founded Sár and Partners Attorneys at Law, where she is in charge of managing trademark matters.

With 15 years' experience Judit has acquired substantial knowledge and expertise in a broad range of IP-related matters particularly within the field of trademark law, handling trademark filings, prosecutions, searches, oppositions, cancellation actions, domain name disputes, enforcement and anti-counterfeiting measures, trademark infringement lawsuits, portfolio management, negotiating and drafting trademark licences and assignments, and co-existence agreements.

Judit has been ranked by WTR 1000 as a silver individual for many years while Sár & Partners/Danubia, which enjoys gold firm ranking, also names her as a key person.

Judit is the Chair of the WIPO-Link Committee of ECTA.

Judit has been a registered attorney at law at the Budapest Bar Association since 1998.

Memberships: She is a member of INTA and ECTA, and at a national level the Hungarian Association for the Protection of Industrial Property and Copyright, the Hungarian Trademark Association and the Hungarian Competition Law Association. She is the author of a number of published articles in both English and Hungarian.

Language skills: She speaks English and German.

ECTA

European Communities Trade Mark Association

DUBROVNIK

2016

ECTA 35th
Annual Conference

22-25 June, 2016
Dubrovnik, Croatia