

ROGUE WAVES & CROSSWINDS: TRADE MARKS IN MOTION

DR. PETER LUKÁCSI, Chair of the ECTA Professional Affairs Committee, SBGK Patent and Law Offices, HU

Peter Lukácsi is attorney at law and partner at SBGK Attorneys at Law, one of the leading law firms in Hungary in the field of intellectual property law.

Peter Lukácsi's main area of practice covers prosecution and litigation in various fields of intellectual property law (trademarks, copyrights and designs) and litigation in the field of competition law. He also has extensive experience negotiating and drafting licensing, distribution and franchising agreements.

Peter Lukácsi represented the plaintiff in the first Community Design infringement case before the Hungarian courts and he currently represents one of the parties before the Court of Justice of the European Union in the first referral to the CJEU from a Hungarian court in a trademark matter.

Peter Lukácsi is a member of the following international associations: INTA, AIPPI and ECTA. He is currently the Chair of ECTA's Professional Affairs Committee.

Peter Lukácsi is regular speaker at intellectual property law conferences and he is the author of several publications within the field of IP law. He is author and co-editor of the first commentary of the Hungarian Trade Mark Act, which was published in 2014, and he is also the author of the Hungarian chapter of the Heidelberger Commentary on Trade Mark Law. Peter Lukácsi regularly teaches intellectual property law at the prestigious Eötvös Loránd University Faculty of Law in Budapest.

Peter Lukácsi is also a member of the Hungarian Council of Copyright Experts.

ECTA

European Communities Trade Mark Association

DUBROVNIK

2016

ECTA 35th
Annual Conference

22-25 June, 2016
Dubrovnik, Croatia