

ROGUE WAVES & CROSSWINDS: TRADE MARKS IN MOTION

RUTA OLMANE, ECTA First Vice-President, METIDA Law Firm, LV

Ruta Olmane, Latvian and European Trademark and Design Attorney, METIDA LAW FIRM graduated from University of Latvia, Faculty of Law in 2000 with a diploma of lawyer. In 2003 graduated from Faculty of Economics and Management of the University of Latvia with a diploma of master of public administration. Additionally she acquired special education in the industrial property field.

A qualified Latvian trademark attorney since 2003 and European trademark attorney since 2004.

Ruta Olmane has been an active specialist of intellectual property for 16 years, she started her career in Patent Agency TRIA ROBIT. In her daily practice Ruta Olmane advises national and international clients in relation to protection and enforcement of intellectual property matters. Mainly dealing with trademark filing, opposition and appeal cases before Patent Office of Latvia and Office for Harmonization in the Internal Market (OHIM), licensing, cases regarding unlawful use of intellectual property rights, detainment of counterfeit goods by Customs or Police, as well as litigation before all court instances.

Ruta Olmane is First Vice President and Council member of ECTA (Brussels); Board member of Latvian National Group of AIPPI (International Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property, Zurich, Switzerland); Member of the Latvian Association of Patent Attorneys.

She regularly participates and lectures at various domestic and international conferences and seminars.

ECTA

European Communities Trade Mark Association

DUBROVNIK

2016

ECTA 35th
Annual Conference

22-25 June, 2016
Dubrovnik, Croatia