

ROGUE WAVES & CROSSWINDS: TRADE MARKS IN MOTION

DAVID PELLISÉ, Pellisé Abogados, ES

David is Managing Partner of Pellisé Abogados, a Barcelona-based intellectual property boutique law firm that focuses on IP litigation and commercial agreements relating to IP matters. He has successfully handled his clients' interests in every jurisdictional instance, including the Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU) and the Supreme Court of Spain. David's litigation practice spans a broad range of industries. David has also been appointed as Arbitrator in many matters related to Industrial Property. He lectures on intellectual property matters at the Magister Lvcentinvs in Intellectual Property (Alicante) and is the co-director of the Master in Intellectual Property at the Barcelona Bar Association.

He is the author of numerous works and articles on IP Law, including "Proportionality and dissuasion in setting the damages for the infringement of IP rights".

David currently serves as President of the Spanish Group of AIPPI (International Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property).

ECTA

European Communities Trade Mark Association

DUBROVNIK
2016

ECTA 35th
Annual Conference

22-25 June, 2016
Dubrovnik, Croatia